

Kim DelNigro

From: Angel Vega [avega@ttor.org]
Sent: Thursday, August 09, 2007 11:21 AM
To: Angel Vega
Subject: TTOR/PCI: Attend Conservation Commission Day - Sept 19 in Boston

Greetings,

We strongly encourage you to attend this important, free event in commemoration of 50 years of achievement by conservation commissions in protecting the Massachusetts environment. Come and hear speakers such as Governor Deval Patrick (invited), Senator Pam Resor, Secretary of Energy and Environmental Affairs Ian Bowles, and former Secretary Bob Durand. Meet your legislators and help lobby for important land protection bills...enjoy a free light breakfast and afternoon refreshments...network with a wide range of environmental advocates...and most importantly, show your support for the work of conservation commissions.

WHAT: "Conservation Commission Day"

WHEN: Wednesday, September 19, 2007 | 9am to 2pm

WHERE: The State House, Boston, MA

REGISTRAR: It's free—just email to Lindsay Martucci (lindsay.martucci@macweb.org) with your name, address, daytime phone number, e-mail address and affiliation.

QUESTIONS? Visit <http://www.macweb.org/emacc/statehouse.html> or contact Ken Pruitt, MACC Executive Director, (617.489.3930; ken.pruitt@macweb.org).

SPONSORED BY: Massachusetts Association of Conservation Commissions

CO-SPONSORS: The Trustees of Reservations
Association of Massachusetts Wetlands Scientists
Conservation Law Foundation
Environmental League of Massachusetts
Mass Audubon
Massachusetts Land Trust Coalition
Massachusetts Watershed Coalition
Public Employees for Environmental Responsibility

If you would like to be added or removed from this occasional email list please send your request to pci@ttor.org

Angel Vega
Program Assistant, Putnam Conservation Institute
The Trustees of Reservations | Doyle Conservation Center
464 Abbott Avenue | Leominster, MA 01453

8/13/2007